Sloppy Business, Bad Government

Musk and his allies began purging the federal government of career employees, beginning with employees still in their probationary period, typically those with less than a year in the job.

- The Department of Veterans Affairs lost 1,000 people
- the Consumer Protection Financial Bureau lost more than 100 people
- The U.S. Department of Agriculture lost more than 2,400
- The U.S. Forest Service lost more than 3,000
- The Environmental Protection Agency lost 400
- The Small Business Administration lost more than 100
- The Interior Department lost 2,300, including workers at national parks
- The Department of Health and Human Services is expected to lose nearly all of its 5,200 workers in their probationary period, including 1,300 at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)—10% of its workforce—while the National Institutes of Health (NIH) lost 1,500.
- Department of Education is on the block (Title 1, school lunches)

Cuts to indirect spending in grants from the National Institutes of Health will also hit hard across the country, and states where Trump won more than 55% of the 2024 vote are no exception.

- Texas stands to lose more than $300 million
- Ohio, more than $170 million
- Tennessee, Missouri, and Florida, more than $130 million apiece.
- These losses will cause thousands of layoffs

53% of the counties in the U.S. received at least a quarter of their income from government programs—primarily through Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid.

A Sloppy and illegal business approach is hurting millions of Americans and the ripples are just spreading. Loss of more jobs, farm subsidies, grants for construction, teachers, day cares and health clinics.

"Trump controls congress and could have passed the cuts carefully and methodically without the damage we see.
His sloppy attack was with vengeance and anger."

AND GOD SAYS . . .

Anyone, then, who knows the good he ought to do and doesn't do it, sins. (James 4:17 NIV)

To not do the good that you know to do is called the sin of omission. Or as stated in Wikipedia, "a sin of omission is a sin committed by willingly not performing a certain action." It is interesting to me that none of the articles I read concerning this text dealt with the context in which it was written. Rather they use stories like Luke 10:30-37, the story of the Good Samaritan, or Matthew 25:31-34, the story of those who saw others hungry and thirsty but did nothing about it, to illustrate the sin of ommission. They are not wrong in what they say, they just do not start in the right place, and therefore miss the foundational truth that James is trying to warn us about.

Immediately preceding James words concerning the sin of omission, he say: Now listen, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money." Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes. Instead, you ought to say, "If it is the Lord's will, we will live and do this or that." (James 4:13-15)

The larger context for James words is his teaching on humbling ourselves and submitting to God, which, if not done, lead to fights and quarrels and compromise with the world.

I wish I could say more to make my case, but space limits me. It seems to me that James is speaking to the sin of pride that calls attention to itself when we do not humble ourselves by not giving God the recognition due him as sovereign Lord over our affairs. This is born out by Paul's teaching in Romans 1:21, " For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him . . . ," which is the sin of omission and leads to all kinds of problems. Instead of giving thanks to God we say, we were lucky or such some thing. Isn't James really telling us that we ought always to be conscious of God's involvement and oversight of our lives, and give him the credit due him? By not doing so we tend to go our own way which leads to even greater problems.

Clark County Humane Society's Pet of the Week

"LIGHTNING MCQUEEN"

Lightning McQueen is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

Lightning McQueen came to CCHS with his two sisters earlier this January from a local farm. This speedy Red Heeler Mix is about 12 weeks old and weighs 14.6# currently. He has a short-haired red and white coat with lots of cute little red speckles. He is quite the handsome guy with a sharp mind, ready to love and ready to learn! Lightning McQueen doesn't want to make any pitstops when it comes to racing into his furever home! With any puppy, especially high-energy breeds like Heelers, training and socialization are incredibly important to the success of the pup. He promises to bring lots of love, smiles and happiness to his new family! Apply for Lightning McQueen today! You can submit your adoption application on our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt. We have lots of wonderful pets available for adoption now, so please check them all out and then stop in to visit!

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com. Come join our CCHS volunteer family!
