Blair-Taylor School District

Early Learning Center

Registration for the 2022-2023 School Year

The Blair-Taylor Early Learning Center will host

Four-year-old Kindergarten (4K) registration and Head Start registration for the 2022-2023 school year on Monday, April 18, 2022, from 11:00am-6:00pm in the Blair-Taylor Elementary commons.

Due to health and safety guidelines, each family will have to schedule an appointment by calling the elementary office at 608-989-9835, option 4.

This is a time to come to the Blair-Taylor Early Learning Center to see the facility, meet the teachers, and fill out necessary paperwork for the 2022-23 school year. If you have a child who is 4 years old before September 1, 2022, your child will be able to come to school next year – for four full days per week. All families with four-year-olds will be receiving necessary paperwork vis the U.S. Postal Service. If you have not received information by March 25, please call Blair-Taylor Elementary at 608-989-9835, option 4 to set up a time for registration.

All families will NEED to bring in their child's birth certificate.

Head Start is also taking applications for the fall and still has openings available. Head Start serves children who are three to five years old. Your child must be three by September 1, 2022, to attend Head Start. Please come in and check out these great programs! If you have any questions regarding 4K, please call 608-989-9835 or email Kim Nehring (nehrik@btsd.k12.wi.us) or Emily Becker (beckee@btsd.12.wi.us). If you have any questions regarding Head Start, please call 608-989-9835 or email Kim Serum (serumk@btsd.k12.wi.us) or Karen Robertson (roberk@btsd.k12.wi.us).

However many that are first will be last, and the last first.

AND GOD SAYS . . .

Paul, in Romans 1:15-16, exclaims, " I am so eager to preach the gospel . . . for I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes!".

I wonder how many of us as believers feel this way. By all appearances it seems like we don't. Let me explain why I say that.

First, Paul declares that he is "eager" to preach the gospel. That means he looks for opportunities to preach the gospel. He doesn't just wait for what we call "an opportunity" nor is he easily intimidated. He is ready always, eager to tell others about Jesus.

Second, Paul says "he is not ashamed of the gospel." The word ashamed is an interesting word. According to the Theological Dictionary of the New Testament, this does not really mean to "feel ashamed," but rather to be disgraced by the gospel. This is because Paul has personally experienced the change in his life that the gospel, the good news of Jesus Christ, made in his own life. He has also seen the change it has made in a multitude of other people who have put their faith in Jesus. So he has never been shamed or disgraced because of the failure of the gospel.

Third, the gospel is the "power" of salvation. The word power is the Greek word that we get the word dynamite from. It is that explosive power that radically changes lives. It sets people free from the guilt caused by sin as well as the bondage to sin. But it doesn't leave us empty. Rather we are filled with the Spirit of God and his peace that comes with it.

Fourth, he had no doubts about the power of the gospel. That is why he so fervently preached it. It was James who said, "I will show you my faith by my works." That's what Paul did by preaching the gospel. So I ask you, what do your works reveal?

Finally, Jesus taught us that he "shall reward every man according to his works" (Matthew 16:7). The Greek word here is an unusual word for works. It is a word that means "practice" or "our usual way of doing things." In other words, Jesus will reward us, not just for those few times we spoke up, but rather for our customary, usual way we conduct ourselves. With this in mind, what kind of rewards do you think you will receive for your eagerness to share the gospel? I guess time will tell.

VOL. 10 - ISSUE: 1
JANUARY 24, 2022

I am still me

My behaviors may change, I may begin wondering, repeating questions, have verbal and or/physical outbursts. I may resist personal care and begin hoarding. I may have sleep disorders and /or hallucinations or paranoia. Something may be bothering me. I am trying to communicate it to you in a different way now. But I am still me.

Try to stay calm and resist arguing or reasoning with me. Do not correct me but try to re-direct me. Stay calm, empathize and understand rather than raising your voice and trying to reason with me. I can hear your smile; it helps me to feel safe and secure. I am still me.

Remember that I am unique. Activities and conversations that successfully redirect one person may not work with someone else. My truth is the truth. I am still me.

Keep my routines consistent. It will reduce my anxiety and help decrease your stress. I am still me.

Adopt my activities to what I can do now not what I used to do. Limit my choices, provide gentle guidance, break tasks down into single-step directions and remain positive physically and verbally. I may have changed, but I will still be me.

Please don't say "no" or "don't do that." I am not a child. Treat me as an adult. Step away for a few minutes. Maybe we both need some time. I am still me.

Give me choices or suggestions instead of open-ended questions. Instead of, "Where would you like to go today?" Ask "Do you want to go to the park or the beach today?"

I still like most of the same things. I just may not know how to tell you. But I am still me.

I may still like hugs, be a part of the conversation and attend gatherings and events. But I may forget names and places. Keep me involved. I am still me.

Please advocate for me when I cannot. Exercise, diet and a positive environment can help me. Monitor and report my health changes. I want to still be me.

My memory is short-term. Rewarding me or offering incentives for better behavior now and in the future will no longer work. Negotiating with logic or reason will no longer work. You may become frusrated. I don't mean to frustrate you. I learn differently now, most of the time it is beyond my control. I can be frustrating, but I am still me.

Everyone has a life story. Please document mine; scrapbooks, videos, hobbies, likes/dislikes and my routines. When I can no longer tell my story, it will be helpful to my family, friends, loved ones, caregivers and my care plan. So that I can still be me.

From: Mind & Memory Matters, A Project of Wisconsin BPDD

Each of us have a chance of interacting with an individual who may be experiencing memory loss, whether that is through a loved one, work, or simply being out in the community. I Am Still Me offers a great reminder of how our actions, verbal and nonverbal, affect others.

As people change, it may become harder to visit, and at the same time, those visits become more important. Interfaith's Time for You Dementia Respite Program staff and volunteers get the privilege of visiting with individuals with dementia. These trained individuals provide program participants with a safe place to engage with others who are experiencing memory loss by utilizing the reminders in I Am Still Me.

Interfaith also partners with the Aging and Disability Resource Center to offer a monthly support group on the first Thursday of each month from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. With many resources and partnerships, we are blessed to be a part of this wonderful community.

If you would like more information on Interfaith or our Time for You Respite Program, please call us at 715-284-7058.

Welcome Megan

Hi! My name is Megan Gerardy and I am excited to become a part of the Jackson County Aging and Disability Services Team as the new Elder Benefit Specialist!

I grew up between Wisconsin and Missouri and have settled down outside of Melrose with my husband and our dog, Hank. Outside of work, I love being outdoors and enjoy exploring our beautiful Wisconsin waters, woods and bluffs. I am thrilled to become a part of this community and look forward to getting to know and work alongside my wonderful team and community partners.

I have an educational background in occupational therapy, recreation management and assistive technology. I am currently learning the ins and outs of the Elder Benefit position and am looking forward to meeting with the people of Jackson County to troubleshoot your concerns and review available resources in our area.

Please feel free to reach out with questions or concerns. I can be reached at 715-284-3978 or at Megan.Gerardy@co.jackson.wi.us. Happy New Year – stay safe and warm!

Women in History nominations being accepted

It is that time of year again to submit nominations for Jackson County's 2022 Women in History nominees. Founded in 1996, the purpose of the Jackson County Women in History program is to honor the achievement of women in the history of Jackson County. This is done through the annual induction ceremony honoring the selected women's contributions to Jackson County's history.

Women in History is sponsored by the Women in History Nominating Committee. The ceremony honoring Women in History designees is traditionally held during the third week of March.

Nomination must be submitted by Jan. 31.

In order to be eligible for consideration, individuals must be a resident of Jackson County, must be at least 60 years of age, making a difference in a community in Jackson County, making a difference in someone's life and volunteering their time and talent to benefit the community.

Past nominees that have not been selected within the last three years are resubmitted. Any nomination submitted more than three years can be resubmitted.

Nomination forms can be picked up at the Jackson County Aging Unit, Jackson County Sheriff's Department and Jackson County Interfaith Volunteer Caregivers. Send nominations no later than Jan. 31 to Women in History, PO Box 354, Black River Falls, WI 54615.

Clark County Humane Society's Pet of the Week

"George Strait"

George Strait is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

George Strait has come to visit at CCHS, and he is this week's Pet of the Week! George Strait was surrendered to CCHS from a local farm. He is a mixed breed about 3 years old and weighs 51#. He has a short-haired coat of tan and black with a little white and has soft floppy ears, too. He is a fun-loving kind of guy and makes friends easily. He would, however, prefer to be the only pet in his new home. He just doesn't like to share all of the attention! But he's ready for great times with his new family and looks forward to making lots of wonderful memories together. Applications to adopt Geoge Strait can be submitted through our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt.

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com. Come join our CCHS volunteer family!
