Thank You

The Delores Walker family would like to thank friends and family for the love shown to mom and the support we received during her passing. Your thoughtfulness and presence will always be remembered. We are grateful for the tender care and kindness that the staff of Neillsville Retirement Community and Hospice showed her during her days there. The many beautiful flower arrangements and gifts of money are greatly appreciated. A commemorative plaque or bench will be placed in honor.

She is and will always be missed, but it makes us smile knowing she is now at peace with her long loved Bernie.

AND GOD SAYS . . .

There were 3 outstanding things that had taken place before the Communist took over China (now for decades Red China).
1. The 'morals' of the country were very 'liberal'; and 'immortality' was very rampant.
2. The people were brain washed in believing that the Government will take care of YOU.
3. The registration of firearms (Guns).

(Taken from Morning Glory, Hauge Lutheran Innermission Federation, April 2-13, 2014).

Wow. If I were to describe the culture in America, this would be it. It is no wonder, then, that we have some of the most socialistic people elected to public office in American history. I am also very grateful for our pesky Constitution that seems to constantly get in the way of their socialistic agenda.

When I read point 1 above, I thought, "We are there! No question about it." We are living as they did in the days of the Judges in the Old Testament when "there was no king in Israel [no authority], but every man did that which was right in his own eyes [as they saw fit-NIV]" (Judges 17:6) This is the relativism of today, is it not?

Furthermore, God says lawlessness will be a sign of the last days (2 Thessalonians 2:3). In 1 John 3:4, God calls this lawlessness, sin, not free love or the right to choose. It is the recognition of our lawlessness that needs to be confessed and turned away from while putting our faith in him for his forgiveness. Only then can we expect God to bless our nation.

With regard to government handouts, God says, "If a man will not work, he shall not eat" (2 Thessalonians 3:10) and "Do not hold back the wages of a hired man" (Leviticus 19:13). God speaks to the fact that man is expected to work for what he has and that he has a right to keep what he has worked for. For your information, neither the Constitution nor the Bill of Rights, give our government the authority to administer welfare, tax its citizens, nor a myriad of other programs that, today, we think are essential programs.

Concerning gun regulation, it is interesting to note that when the Philistines wanted to keep Israel in subjection they did not allow them to have spears and swords to defend themselves (I Samuel 13:19).

Is this any different from the issue of gun control today? It is my contention that because we are rejecting our heritage and our God that we are selling ourselves into subjection and slavery. To turn things around we must repent and submit to God.

BARN OWL

THE FIRST VACCINE

Smallpox was a horrible disease that killed hundreds of millions all over the world.
3 out of 10 who caught it died. Many more were blinded and badly scarred. When smallpox arrived in the New World with the Europeans, native inhabitants had no immunity to the disease. Smallpox killed millions of natives in North and South America. It spread ahead of the colonists and Conquistadores and did much of their work for them.

At first, people fought smallpox with a treatment used in Asia and Africa. Immunity was transferred to a person by exposing them to a small amount of the disease. Pus or a scab from a sick person was placed under another person's skin. This was called an "inoculation." Most people would get a mild case of the disease and recover - fully immune. But sometimes the person got very sick and even died. It was a risky treatment but was the only way. As always, some communities wanted the treatment, others were afraid and refused it.

Ben Franklin lost his 4-year-old son to smallpox. He forever regretted not giving him the inoculation in time. Afterwards, he worked to make inoculations more available. Even George Washington ordered all his soldiers to be inoculated to prevent smallpox in his army.

Interestingly, one group was rarely affected by the virus. Milkmaids and farmers who worked with cows were more likely to be immune. They came down with a different disease - Cowpox - that they caught from their animals. This caused a mild illness and a few boils that looked like smallpox. In 1796, an English doctor, Edward Jenner, took pus from a sore on a woman infected with cowpox and injected that into others. They had a brief illness and then full immunity. The procedure was called a "vaccination" after the word for "cow" in Latin: "vacca".

Over time, health workers gave the smallpox vaccine to people all over the world. In the U.S., if you went to grade school before 1972, you probably stood in a line of kids waiting for your vaccination, and you might still have that scar on your left arm - just like kids all over the world. The last known case of smallpox was found in October 1977; in 1980 the disease was declared "eradicated" by the World Health Organization. Over 500 million died of smallpox in the last 100 years before the vaccination stopped the disease entirely.

When accepted and allowed to work, vaccines will protect us and our children from diseases that would kill or maim us. There are risks, but they are few. The world and its people are safer for their use.

Clark County Humane Society's Pet of the Week

"HARVEY"

Harvey is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

Harvey came to CCHS from a local farm in early August. This handsome Heeler mix is just about a year old and weighs roughly 41.6# currently. Harvey is so very handsome with his coat that is blue merle with tan and white. Harvey is a shining pup with a smile to match. He is as sweet as can be, and is ready to share that happiness with you. Harvey is a smart guy, just waiting to figure out all of life's puzzles and snufflemats! He would benefit from an active furever home that can help burn some of that remaining puppy energy. While we aren't entirely certain what his exact breed makeup is, we can tell you he is 100% your newest front seat co-pilot! With any rescue, training and socialization are incredibly important to the success of the dog. Apply for Harvey today!

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com. Come join our CCHS volunteer family!
