AND GOD SAYS . . .

Psalm 2

Why do the nations conspire and the peoples plot in vain? The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the Lord and against his Anointed One.

"Let us break their chains," they say, "and throw off their fetters." The One enthroned in heaven laughs; the Lord scoffs at them. Then he rebukes them in his anger and terrifies them in his wrath, saying, "I have installed my King on Zion, my holy hill."

I will proclaim the decree of the Lord:
He said to me, "You are my Son [Jesus]; today I have become your Father. Ask of me, and I will make the nations your inheritance, the ends of the earth your possession. You will rule them with an iron scepter; you will dash them to pieces like pottery".

Therefore, you kings, be wise; be warned, you rulers of the earth. Serve the Lord with fear and rejoice with trembling. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry and you be destroyed in your way, for his wrath can flare up in a moment. Blessed are all who take refuge in him.

I have quoted this Psalm before the election was over because it is so apropos, no matter who is elected. But, in the end it doesn't matter, because God has already declared the final results. He will win and "every knee will bow and every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord" (Philippians 2:10-11) and those who put their faith in him will be blessed. Come quickly, Lord Jesus!

BARN OWL

WHY BARN OWL

In our country, most of what we read and hear is filtered through corporate media. Most of that is paid for by right wing groups, while the center and liberal media is being brought under tighter control by their corporate owners. That means many people only hear one side of the story when it comes to politics, history, health and culture. I believe EVERY COMMUNITY deserves more than one voice. That's why I buy space in our local newspaper and shopper: to share a progressive view in plain, easy-to-read language.

I write for anyone who wants to think more deeply, question what they've been told, or simply see the world from a different point of view. I do not write to fight. I write to inform and connect. Truthfully, not everyone agrees with what I write – and that's ok. But people have told me, "We learned a lot in today's column" or, "I didn't know the history of that term." That's the goal: to open the door to new ideas.

In each column, I try to explain something that matters: what's really in that law they passed? Why do we use this word and what does it mean? How does good science affect our lives? Why are people fighting for this or that cause? How do these changes affect regular people like us? I believe good information helps people make better choices – not just in elections, but in life. Bit by bit, we are creating space for real conversations and fresh thinking in places where that has been missing for too long.

This work takes time, money and a thick skin. But I do it and my supporters do it because we love our community – and because we believe rural America deserves more than soundbites and slogans. We deserve facts, ideas and a chance to think for ourselves.

If you support this kind of work, thank you. If you want to help it grow, spread the word and contribute to the cost of the ads. If you're reading this and don't agree, that's ok too. I hope you'll keep reading. You may find, once we get past the slogans, that you agree with me on more than you thought. You may find that you too believe that rule by the richest people of the world is not really to our benefit.

We all live here together, and we all have something to learn from one another.
Thanks for your time – and for caring about the truth.

Clark County Humane Society's Pet of the Week

"MARCIE"
Marcie is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

Marcie came to CCHS with 7 other pups earlier in October from a local farm, and they were all named after Charlie Brown characters. This adorable Heeler mix is about 10 weeks old and weighs roughly 7.1# currently. Marcie is super cute with her black, white and tan coat that is soft and fluffy. Marcie has such a gentle and friendly demeanor! She's curious in nature but is always down to snuggle up before getting ready to put her nose to the ground. While we aren't entirely certain what her exact breed makeup is, we can tell you she is 100% Lovebug! With any puppy, training and socialization are incredibly important to the success of the pup. Marcie will be a wonderful addition to her new family! If she's just the friend you've been looking for, please apply to adopt Marcie today!

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com. Come join our CCHS volunteer family!
