AND GOD SAYS . . .

Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good. His love endures forever. Psalm 107:1

1 Thessalonians 5:18 tells us to "give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." How can we do that if our circumstances are painful, negative, or harmful? Because God's nature never changes. He is always good. He always has your best in mind. No matter what your circumstances are at the moment, God sees past them and only allows what is best for you for all eternity. However, there is a qualifier—this is only guaranteed if you love God (Romans 8:28).

That is why we can be thankful that our God, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, is a good God no matter what our circumstances are. That is why the apostle Paul and his coworker, Silas, while their feet where fastened in stocks in the inner prison, guarded day and night, could sing hymns to God while continuing in prayer (Acts 16:25). They understood their suffering was only temporary. They knew that that which was really real and lasting where those things God promised which they could not see, except by faith. And remember, He is a GOOD God. Always. And every good and perfect gift comes from Him (James 1:17). We know this is so because He cannot violate His nature, which is good.

Because of this truth, we do not need to fear Him like those of other religions. Rather, we are granted direct access to Him in all our needs through Jesus Christ. And when we seek God, He promises mercy to hear us and the grace to help us in all our needs (Hebrews 4:16).

His desire is to give us His good and perfect gifts that come from above. He has made the way to do this through His Son, Jesus Christ. When we admit our need of Jesus, confessing Him as our Lord and believing that God raised Him from the dead, we will be saved (Romans 8:9-10). Then God can give us His good and perfect gifts. He remains with us at all times. Furthermore, we qualify for God's promises and blessing that last for eternity—no matter what our circumstances are today.

BARN OWL

Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE)

Immigration and Customs Enforcement, or ICE, was created in 2002 by Congress as part of the new Department of Homeland Security. Both were formed after the 9/11 terrorist attacks that killed over 3000 Americans.

ICE's mission was "to protect America through criminal investigation and enforcing immigration laws." It was meant to stop criminal networks that threatened the American people. By 2025 ICE employed 20,000 employees with an $8 billion budget. The officers we see wearing masks belong to ICE's Enforcement and Removal Operations (ERO).

Past presidents used ICE mostly to remove immigrants who committed serious crimes. President Obama deported 2.4 million undocumented immigrants during his two terms in office. When Trump first took office, he added 10,000 new ICE agents and gave them more power. By Trump's second term, ICE's focus changed. They didn't just go after serious criminals. They began targeting anyone suspected of being in the country illegally.

Legal supervision over ICE decreased after many leaders were fired or replaced. 900 arrests were made daily by ICE. But Trump's chief of staff, Steven Miller, pushed ICE leaders to arrest 3000 people per day. He screamed at ICE directors and threatened to fire those who didn't meet his goals. Under this pressure, ICE began more random raids and arrests in neighborhoods, churches, factories and schools. Agents, who were already considered by many to be loose cannons, now often arrest people based on how they look or what language they speak, not because of criminal activity.

Most people held by ICE have no criminal record now. Many are working people, parents or asylum seekers -- not the worst of the worst -- not the rapists and murderers Trump claimed. In some cases, US citizens have been detained for weeks without being able to call their lawyers or families before being released without charges.

New recruits are offered $50,000 sign-on bonuses and loan forgiveness. To recruit more agents, ICE lowered its age limit to 18, cut training time in half and skipped full background checks. Now you can be detained and held with no legal recourse by an untrained, armed teenager.

The Big Beautiful Bill raised ICE's budget to $100 billion, making it the most heavily funded law enforcement agency in this country. ICE now has a larger military budget than countries like Turkey and Spain. ICE operates with little legal control and answers mostly to the President. How safe are the rest of us when power like that goes unchecked?

October Employee of the Month
Pine View Terrace
Deb Peterson

Pine View Terrace Assisted Living celebrates Deb Peterson as our October "Employee of the Month!"

Deb was selected by residents and fellow team members for her devotion to assuring that our residents receive "best in class" attention and care. She has devoted over 20 years to senior healthcare to include six years at Pine View Terrace. In addition to being a tenured trusted Resident Assistant, she has been embraced as a top caregiver with a sincere heart and spirit. "The tenants and their happiness are what is most important to me. If I can see their smiles, my days are then worthy. I just love them all."

The recognition of Employee of the Month is a special reward and honor bestowed upon a staff member by both our residents and fellow team members. We are truly fortunate in that our residents express appreciation for our entire staff and treasure them for their heartfelt desire to be of service, their love of each resident and their authentic spirit.

"Thank you, Deb, for all you do!"

Clark County Humane Society's Pet of the Week

"MALEFICENT"

Maleficent is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

Maleficent came to CCHS with her 5 siblings earlier in October from a local farm. This beautiful Heeler mix is about 12 weeks old and weighs roughly 14.7# currently. Maleficent is a playful gal who loves to run! She has a happy personality and loves to be around people. She is so very pretty with a short-haired coat of black, white and merle, with warm soulful brown eyes. She would benefit from an active furever family as she has quite the puppy energy to burn off! Don't fret though, she never likes to get too far from her people if she (or the leash) can help it! While we aren't entirely certain what her exact breed makeup is, we can tell you she is 100% Powerhouse! With any puppy, training and socialization are incredibly important to the success of the pup. If Maleficent is the friend you've been looking for, please apply to adopt her today!

Save the Date! Santa and Mrs. Claus are returning to CCHS this year for our annual Pet Pictures with Santa & Mrs. Claus! They will be at the Shelter on December 6th from 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. They do a wonderful job and are happy to take pictures with all kinds of pets, from cats and dogs to rats and goats! Pictures are then available for purchase as prints, email or on a flash drive. So bring your pets and make some great Holiday memories! More details are available on our website.

AD DEADLINE FOR THE BANNER JOURNAL, CLARK CO. PRESS & THE SHOPPER IS WEDNESDAY AT 3:00 P.M.

Broken Chain

We little knew the day that
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories.
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one
the chain will link again.

by Ron Tranmer

Thank You

With sincere hearts we extend our thank you to Pastor Jenny, Rev. Barb Knutson and Joey Barnett for the beautiful funeral service; to Torgerson Funeral Home for their professional support. Our gratitude also to Lori Janke and Barb Schreiber of My Simply Sweet Kitchen for the lovely luncheon and to everyone who supported us in every imaginable way during this difficult time of illness and loss. Gratitude, also to St. Croix Hospice and Home Instead for providing passionate care.

Sincerely, In God's Love,
The Family of Thomas Lee Harkner
