PET FRIENDLY

AND GOD SAYS . . .

I am tired. How about? I am tired of the leftist/liberal/progressive/socialist/hedonist/pro-abortionist/anarchist from forcing their will on me. I am tired of the loud minority bullying, cancelling, suing, threatening, attacking and lying to force their will on the majority. I am tired of our children being used as scapegoats for these people to practice their depraved behavior on. I am tired of Christians being denied access to our schools while atheists and humanists infiltrate the classrooms across America. I am tired of it all.

But then I read in Galatians 6:9, "Let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not." As I thought on this verse, several ideas came to mind.

The first was negative. I thought, "But why continue, it just doesn't seem to do any good. Things just keep getting worse."

To this I have to admit, "Yes, everything certainly does seem to be getting worse." But, isn't that what God said would happen in the last days. Just read Matthew 24. And we must also remember that this is not the end of the story. We will reap, if we don't give up. We will inherit, not only eternal life, but an eternal life in the presence of God, in the fulness of joy, without any of the effects of sin. So faith says it is worth it all.

Secondly, Isaiah 40:31, encourages us to wait upon God in these trying days. The prophet Isaiah said, "But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint." You see, God is faithful if we "wait upon Him" and not try to do things in our own strength. He is the victory.

Thirdly, Luke 18:1, admonishes us to "always to pray, and not to faint," that is, not to quit, not to give up. It is as we deliberately humble ourselves in the presence of God, that God gives us the grace to go on and overcome. You see, this battle we are in is a spiritual battle and it is only fought effectively with spiritual weapons that begin and end with God almighty. So, don't give up, trust in God. He will not let you down!

Clark County Humane Society's Pet of the Week

"Brave"

Brave is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

Brave came to CCHS from another overcrowded Shelter. He is about a year old and weighs about 62.9#. He is very handsome with a short-haired chocolate brown coat. While his name is Brave, this boy is actually a little shy when he first meets you. But he's very sweet and loves attention once he's comfortable with things. He gets along well with other dogs and cats and loves to go for car rides. Brave would do best in a calm home where he won't be overwhelmed. He needs a chance to build his self-confidence and blossom into the good dog he is! Please apply to adopt Brave today! Adoption applications can be submitted through our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt.

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: <https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer> or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com. Come join our CCHS volunteer family!
