AND GOD SAYS . . .

Today in church, one thing the pastor stressed was how much Christians need encouragement. With that I heartedly agree. But encouragement can come in many forms. As I have been reading through the book of revelation, I have come to chapter 19, and I was greatly encouraged. Here is one of the passages that encouraged me.

I saw heaven standing open and there before me was a white horse, whose rider is called Faithful and True. With justice he judges and makes war. His eyes are like blazing fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has a name written on him that no one knows but he himself. He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and his name is the Word of God. The armies of heaven were following him, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen, white and clean. Out of his mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations. "He will rule them with an iron scepter." He treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God Almighty. On his robe and on his thigh he has this name written:

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

And I saw an angel standing in the sun, who cried in a loud voice to all the birds flying in midair, "Come, gather together for the great supper of God, so that you may eat the flesh of kings, generals, and mighty men, of horses and their riders, and the flesh of all people, free and slave, small and great. (Revelation 19:11-18)

Why is a passage like this such an encouragement? Well, it is an encouragement because the God I serve is worthy to be served and He is not going to let me down. When everything is said and done, I will be on the winning side because I have put my faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

But for those who have not done that, beware. You are not only on the losing side, but you will come under the unlimited wrath of God forever. But even that should be an encouragement—that is, an encouragement to repent and put your faith in Jesus before it is too late. If you do not, you will regret it for all of eternity. And for sure, you can't say you weren't warned.
