BARN OWL

LOOKING FOR AUNT TEEFA

The government is looking for “Aunt Teefa”. They claim she organizes violent events and is planning more. In September, 2025, the Trump administration declared her to be a domestic terrorist organization. They said that some people who protest are part of Aunt Teefa’s group. The odd thing is no one else can find her. No one else can prove she ever existed.

ANTIFA is actually short for Anti-Fascist. It is an idea and a belief, not a formal organization. It has no leadership, headquarters or membership. It is only a label – like “Packer Fan” or “Cheesehead.” They have no oaths to take or rules to follow. Real terrorist groups like ISIS, Boko Haram or Al Qaeda have leaders, members and organized networks. Antifa does not.

People who oppose fascism sometimes form small independent groups. Most are on the far left and involved in protest. They do not take orders from anyone. They are not connected “cells” in a network. Each group may agree on some ideas but often disagree on a lot. Some of these groups may have trouble agreeing on toppings for their pizza.

Nevertheless, President Trump declared Antifa to be a domestic terrorist organization even though he does not have legal power to do that. Now Antifa is the government’s target. Anyone who speaks out against the government in any way could be accused of being a part of Antifa. And the government is coming for Antifa, even if they can’t explain what it is.

Protestors have now been accused of being Antifa members in many trials in the nation. On July 4, 2025, about 25 people protested outside an ICE detention center in Texas. They carried signs and set off fireworks. One person fired a gun and wounded a police officer. He was sentenced to 100 years in prison. Others were convicted of crimes, including providing material support to a terrorist organization. They were sentenced to 50 – 70 years. One man was not at the protest, but moved a box of literature at home. He was convicted of conspiracy to conceal evidence. He received a 30-year sentence. Even though the government couldn’t prove Antifa existed, it said they all belonged to her group.

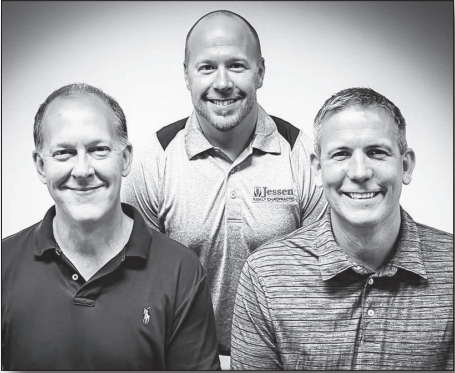

The Trump administration wants to use Aunt Teefa to stop people from opposing them. They say Aunt Teefa is huge and dangerous. What does that mean for people who simply disagree with the government? Could a lawn sign, a protest - or your opinion - someday be used to prove you work with Aunt Teefa?

AND GOD SAYS . . .

Some time ago, I had received a request to write on the subject of jealousy. I have procrastinated because I really didn't know how to knowledgeably do so. I have had my own questions about the issue of jealousy. We speak of being jealous as wrong and causing all kinds of trouble and division. But then I have to ask the question, “If jealousy is wrong and a sin, how can the Bible declare that God is a jealous God?” So this request forced me to move this subject from the back burner, do some research, and take a stab at addressing it.

In the Greek the word jealous carries with it the idea of being zealous. So to be jealous of someone or something is not to be passive about it. It results in an aggressive behavior to protect or to attack if it is not kept under control.

It has two main definitions in the Cambridge dictionary. The first definitions is “to guard/protect something jealously” or “to protect something very carefully because it is important to you.” Therefore to says that God is a jealous God, is to say that he aggressively protects those who are his. That is to say that God is jealous for his people, not of his people.

Because God is a jealous God, he is very zealous to protect his own holiness by not letting his name be blasphemed. He also is very zealous for his chosen people, the Jewish people as well as those who put their faith in his Son, Jesus Christ. That means that those who harm or curse his people will find themselves facing God’s wrath. And that’s a dangerous place to be.

The other definition is be “unhappy and angry because of something someone has got, or because you do not want to share someone’s love and attention, This is to be jealous of someone, not for someone (as God is). It results in unloving, ungodly behavior, “For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every vile practice” (James 3:16).

The only valid answer to this kind of jealousy is to fully experience the love of God through his Son, Jesus. Read Ephesians chapter 1 to understand all that God has done for you because he loves you and then respond to his love in faith according Ephesians 2: 8-9. Then become imitators of Christ, living a life of love and forgiveness (Ephesians 5: 1-2).
