AND GOD SAYS . . .

Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. Ephesians 4:29.

God loves us, of that I am certain. But to say that is not enough in this day because the word "love" is so terribly distorted and abused today. We confuse real love with feelings of attraction, with self-centered lust, with unqualified sympathy or with silent acceptance, all of which can actually lead to abuse, neglect, and failure to truly love.

A key to true love can be found in the statement above, "only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs (Italics mine)." Do you see it? This means that we cannot truly love until we are no longer thinking about ourselves and the repercussions our actions or words will have on us. It means that to act in love is to act or speak in a way that focuses only on the real need vs. a felt need of the one we are interacting with.

This, I have learned, can be very, very difficult to do because our own selfish, sinful nature is so completely enmeshed in who we are that it is almost impossible to separate. And even when, or if, we are able to do so, our self doesn't go quietly without a struggle.

The only person I can think of that always acted in perfect, selfless love is Jesus Christ, God's son, who is the "exact representative" of his Father. (Hebrews 1:3 NIV). Furthermore, 1 John 3:16 declares, "This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us."

Jesus really wasn't killed. He laid down his life for us. He willing suffered for us. He willing died for us. We didn't take his life from him, he gave it up for us (Matthew 27:50). The crucifixion of Jesus was not just a historical event that happened by the choice of man but a planned and executed victorious defeat of the power on sin and death in our behalf by Almighty God. This was the greatest act of love ever displayed on the face of the earth (Romans 5:8). The only question left to answer is, "Why do you hesitate to embrace this love?" It is yours for the asking.

BARN OWL

CRIME IN THE CITIES AND FEDERAL TROOPS

Our elder president wants to stop the rise in crime in America. He declared an emergency in Los Angeles and in Washington DC, and sent in National Guard and even Marines onto city streets to stop what he said is the worst crime problem ever seen. He says normal people are too scared to go out to eat or walk around in those places.

But if he really wants to stop crime, why not go where the crime is? Here are the top ten cities with the highest crime rates in the U.S.:
1.Memphis, Tennessee, → 2. St. Louis, Missouri, → 3. Detroit, Michigan, → 4. Baltimore, Maryland, → 5. Kansas City, Missouri, → 6. New Orleans, Louisiana, → 7. Cleveland, Ohio, → 8. Little Rock, Arkansas, → 9. Oakland, California and → 10. Birmingham, Alabama

Only three of these cities - Baltimore, Oakland and Detroit - are in states run by Democrats. The rest have Republican mayors and governors. Why haven't troops been sent to Memphis or St. Louis? Los Angeles and Washington DC are not even on the top ten list. And now the president is talking about sending troops to Chicago and San Francisco, which also are not on the list.

Ever since British troops were sent to control our streets, Americans have not wanted the military in our business. There's even a law from 1878 called the Posse Comitatus Act. It bars the US Military from doing police work within the U.S. without *Congressional Approval. The exception was if there was an emergency situation. Trump feels he has the authority to act without that approval.

On September 2, Federal Judge Charles Breyer, ruled that the Trump administration broke the law by sending troops into Los Angeles – even though they knew it was illegal. He said the government's defense for how they acted "is not grounded in the history of the [Posse Comitatus] Act, Supreme Court [decisions], or common sense."

Our president is only sending military into cities that he doesn't control. Even if all they do is stand around or pick up garbage like they are doing in DC, they are still there. They remain there to intimidate and to slowly make us accustomed to government guns on our streets. That is how dictators quietly change the rules and reduce the resistance to their plans. Our president is looking for ways to establish martial law.

We can thank the courts and those who oppose him in government for slowing him down.

Clark County Humane Society's Pet of the Week

"ALI"

Ali is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

This handsome guy had been hanging around a home in the Spencer area for about a month, and then disappeared for a week. When he returned, he had some pretty nasty wounds and needed medical attention. He was brought to CCHS, where our medical team quickly sprang into action to try and save his life. Honestly, they were some of the nastiest wounds our vet team had ever seen. We aren't exactly sure what happened to Ali, and he's not talking. But we suspect he was almost a victim of an eagle or other large bird of prey. But this guy is a fighter! That's why he was named after Muhammed Ali! He came through the emergency surgery like a champ, and healed up wonderfully like the winner he is. He's a super sweet boy and is quite the handsome Gray Tabby. Unfortunately, he did test positive for Feline Leukemia, probably as a result of his outdoor adventures. That means he will have to be the only kitty in his future home, or live with other cats that are also FeLV positive. Ali is a little over a year old and weighs 7.3#. If you have the perfect spot for a special boy like Ali, please apply to adopt him today!

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com. Come join our CCHS volunteer family!
